New bridge connects Maple Island to Paw Paw

PAW PAW - A new pedestrian bridge connecting Maple Isle Park to the rest of Paw Paw will be opened to the public on Saturday, May 2, during a grand opening ceremony at noon. The new bridge replaces the former Maple Island Bridge built during the Franklin Roosevelt Administration.

Maple Island is a centerpiece of the Village of Paw Paw's parks system, and the jewel of Maple Lake. Generations of Paw Paw residents have grown up on and around the island, and it remains a vital part of the village's cultural fabric.

After approximately 90 years of service, the original island bridge had reached the end of its useful life and needed replacement to provide safe passage for residents and visitors to the Island. The Village of Paw Paw obtained a $300,000 grant from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources through its Natural Resources Trust fund and made use of American Rescue Plan Act funds to pay for the balance of the $740,000 project.

The village secured the services of Abonmarche Consultants of Benton Harbor, and Riverworks Construction of Holland, MI, for the design and construction of the new bridge. It crosses the same 200-foot span as the old bridge but is wider and features small fishing platforms in several locations. It is a timber and composite bridge on treated wood piers.

The village extends an invitation to the public to attend the ribbon cutting and grand opening event. There will be light refreshments waiting for attendees on the Island after a ceremonial 'first crossing.' The village will open the parks for the season that same day. The bridge is located on the west side of the street in the 900 block of N. Kalamazoo St., (M-40). In case of bad weather, the event will be held on Sunday, May 3, at 2 p.m.

Parks millage renewal vote set for May 5

PAW PAW - The Village of Paw Paw will ask voters to consider renewal of its parks millage on Tuesday, May 5. The 1.5 mill levy was originally approved by voters in 2020 for five years. It provides the village with approximately $140,000 each year for maintenance and improvement of Village parks.

Since its inception, the village has made several significant improvements within the parks, funded in part by the millage, general revenue funding and matching grants. Important improvements include adding an employee to monitor parks conditions, including bathroom cleanliness, adding cameras in strategic locations to help deter vandalism, replacing the Maple Island Bridge and repairing the Sunset Park dock and boat launch.

Having a dedicated source of funds provides stable, predictable funding that ensures park maintenance and improvement. Regular, scheduled maintenance is cost effective, helping prevent costly emergency repairs and expensive deferred maintenance.

Future parks plans include refurbishing the amphitheater and boardwalk, improving or replacing the Kids Paradise playscape, and possibly expanding local recreation offerings with new amenities, such as pickleball courts. Millage funds can also be used to leverage grants for larger projects, as many require a local matching contribution.

"We know that many residents depend on our parks for outdoor exercise and recreation," Village Manager Bryan Myrkle said. "That is especially true for young families. We want to provide parks opportunities for them that are safe and engaging. The millage helps us reach that goal."

Suspicious vehicle leads to rescue of missing man in Waverly Twp.

On April 16, 2026, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Van Buren County Sheriff's Office deputies were dispatched to the 35000 block of Riverview Drive in Waverly Township for a report of a suspicious vehicle.

Upon arrival, deputies discovered that a vehicle had been driven into a secluded area behind a residence and abandoned. The homeowner reported finding the vehicle in an obscure portion of the backyard. Deputies identified the vehicle as belonging to a 79-year-old male from Jackson, MI, according to a press release from the Van Buren County Sheriff's Office.

Due to the wooded terrain in the area, which includes the banks of the South Branch of the Paw Paw River, deputies believed the driver may have been disoriented and left the vehicle on foot. A search was initiated, and K-9 Charlie, along with his handler, were requested to assist.

K-9 Charlie successfully established a track leading toward the river. During the search, deputies heard the subject calling out for help. K-9 Charlie led deputies to the man, who was located partially in the river, holding onto downed trees.

The K-9 handler was able to safely remove the individual from the water and assist him onto the riverbank. The male appeared disoriented, was unsure of his location, and reported being exhausted.

Van Buren Emergency Medical Services responded to the scene. Deputies and EMS personnel carried the individual from the riverbank to the roadway, where he was transported by ambulance to Bronson LakeView Hospital, Paw Paw, for evaluation.

The Van Buren County Sheriff's Office commends the coordinated efforts of responding deputies, K-9 Charlie, and EMS personnel, whose actions resulted in the safe recovery of the individual.

Antwerp Township rejects proposed addendum by Van Buren District Library

ANTWERP TWP. - At its regularly scheduled meeting on April 14, the Antwerp Township Board unanimously voted to reject the proposed addendum dated March 22 and demanded negotiation to the Van Buren District Library Board for the Van Buren District Library Branch Agreement.

In a letter dated April 15, to Wayne Rendell, Antwerp Township Supervisor, Daniel Ruzick said, "This decision was made after careful review and is final with respect to the addendum in its current and previously submitted forms."

Ruzick said Antwerp Township's position is based on the following:

Failure to Address Maintenance Obligations

"The proposed addendum continues to rely on language that does not establish any binding obligation for the library to contribute to building maintenance costs. As confirmed in your legal counsel's memorandum, the existing agreements do not require the library to pay for maintenance beyond limited services. The addendum merely introduces discretionary contributions and does not correct this fundamental inequity."

Rejection of One-Size-Fits-All Addendum Structure

"Antwerp Township will not accept a uniform addendum applied equally across all municipalities regardless of facility size, usage, or cost burden. The Antwerp facility is the largest branch (approximately 6,680 square feet), and the Township bears a disproportionate financial responsibility under the current structure. A standardized addendum is not an acceptable solution."

Requirement for a Standalone Agreement

"The Township has clearly and consistently requested negotiation of a new, standalone agreement. A proposed contract and capital funding framework have already been provided to your Board. Those materials establish a reasonable and flexible structure, including a dedicated capital fund to ensure the long-term maintenance and sustainability of the Antwerp facility. Continued resubmission of an addendum in place of engaging on a new agreement is not productive."

Addendum Structure Remains Insufficient "The current addendum proposal provides only discretionary, capped contributions and fails to create a predictable, enforceable, or equitable long-term funding model. This approach does not meet the Township's minimum requirements for fiscal responsibility.

"Accordingly, the Antwerp Township Board formally requests that the Van Buren District Library Board cease submitting revised addenda and instead enter good-faith negotiations for a new, standalone agreement.

"The Township has established a firm deadline of June 14, 2026, for meaningful progress toward such an agreement.

"Antwerp Township wishes to be equally clear on the following point: the Township does not seek to remove the library from its current facility. The Board values the continued presence of the library and remains committed to ensuring uninterrupted library services for Township residents. However, that commitment does not extend to continuing under an inequitable or undefined cost structure. The Township will pursue a fair and enforceable agreement and is prepared to work within a reasonable timeframe necessary to achieve that outcome. Finally, due to the lack of progress to date, the Board formally requests the engagement of a neutral third-party mediator. Continued reliance on repeated addendum submissions, rather than substantive negotiation, necessitates structured facilitation to move this process forward.

"The Antwerp Township Board expects a timely response and a demonstrated willingness to engage in meaningful negotiations."

Ruzick also sent the letter to Lawrence, Covert and Pine Grove townships, the City of Gobles, as well as the Van Buren County Board of Commissioners.

The Antwerp Township Board drafted 10 articles for the VBDL to consider, as well as a Capital Improvement Fund Proposal.

The proposal establishes a structured Capital Improvement Fund to ensure the long-term maintenance, repair, and replacement of major building systems. The goal is to prevent large, unexpected expenditures and to maintain the building in safe and functional condition.

This proposal recommends establishing a jointly funded Capital Improvement Reserve of approximately $30,000-$35,000 annually, shared equally between Antwerp Township and the District Library. This structured approach ensures long-term financial stability and proper stewardship of the building asset.

Ruzick told The Courier-Leader on Monday, April 20, "Given that the District Library Board has continued to submit revised addenda while Antwerp Township has been clear in seeking a new contract, highlighting mediation as a constructive path forward could help frame the next steps more clearly. It reinforces that Antwerp Township is looking for progress through a fair and structured process rather than continued back-and-forth on the addendum," said Ruzick.

GingerMan Raceway has full season of racetrack events

Jill, Dan & Zach Schnitta

by James Windell

When Dan Schnitta offered me a ride in his Lamborghini Huracan, I thought it would be a leisurely drive around the curvy 2.1-mile racetrack.

Instead, I got a white-knuckle view of the GingerMan racecourse sitting low in the Italian sports car with speeds approaching 110 miles per hour.

That was my introduction to the man who built the GingerMan Raceway just a few miles outside of South Haven.

Celebrating their 30th anniversary this year, the GingerMan Raceway has a full season of events ranging from SCAA sporting events to motor bike time trials to musical concerts, with the signature event the Gridlife Midwest Festival in June.

Looking at the lineup of events that fill up every weekend, there's something that is sure to interest anyone who enjoys racing and speed – all in a family friendly atmosphere on the 340 acres that comprise the GingerMan Raceway.

In May alone, there is a Fast Guys Club, RPM Speed Speed-Sport, CGI Motor Sports, GingerMan's Evening Test 'n' Tune, the Vintage Sports Car Drivers, and SCCA (Sports Car Club of America) Track Night in America.

Returning for its third year in June is the Bagger Racing League, an ever-growing event at the GingerMan filled with competitive racing, good times and "cool Harley dudes."

A recent interview with Dan Schnitta, his son Zach, the raceway's general manager, and his daughter Jill, the CFO of the business, revealed not only the plans for the summer but a history of the race course that was built on an apple orchard in 1994 and 1995.

"Back then, I looked at multiple locations in the area, but faced zoning restrictions and other barriers," Dan Schnitta said. "This site worked out because there were effectively no zoning restrictions. But my intent was to give people a good time and create a welcoming, non-intimidating environment."

What he desired, Schnitta said, was a place that would parallel his experience of running the GingerMan Tavern in Chicago near Wrigley Field from 1977 to 2012.

Schnitta explained the name GingerMan came from the book by J.P. Donleavy, "The Ginger Man," published in the 1950s. The book is a darkly comic, chaotic, and often abrasive novel about a charmingly destructive young American. Although Schnitta has had a colorful life and a love of fast cars, he is not otherwise like Donleavy's character.

While the events at the racetrack may often focus on speed, Schnitta says that the track also emphasizes being laid-back and "not corporate" – while still being serious about safety. "Here our visitors, especially younger groups, are given more freedom than at many tracks and we allow them to hang out in the woods and camp areas," said Schnitta. "We have a strong safety record for cars, and we've never had any overnight hospitalizations associated with events here."

The events that are scheduled, explained Zach Schnitta, will be appealing to spectators on most weekends between now and the end of October. "Weekdays are often for private groups," he said. "We have pro teams practicing, or the police use it for training, or we have corporate testing and we even have commercials that are being shot here."

Zach added that the Gridlife Festival in June is the biggest event at the GingerMan Raceway each year. "It's a four-day festival," he said, "and activities include time attack and time trials, drifting, a car show by the pond, food vendors, concert with DJs and hip hop/EDM at night, arcade, and silent disco." He said that attendance at this event typically ranges from 6,000 to 10,000 people. "It's a major draw for the area," he said.

Not one, but two new go-karting groups will take over the track. The Dark Kart Club from Ohio will bring over 300 go-karts September 18 to 20, 2026. A smaller go-kart group, RPM Speed-Sport will use the race course May 9 and 10 this spring.

The American Historic Racing Motorcycle Association (AHRMA) returns with their always cool vintage and historic bikes this summer on July 24 to 26. Summer Track Days will again have an all-women's day on October 18. Last year they had 30 female drivers, and they expect more this year, according to Zach Schnitta.

Also, Zach says that NASA will be at GingerMan three times this season. "They will bring sprint racing, enduro racing, time trials and even some HPDE," he adds. HPDE is High Performance Driver Education. Their three events are June 19 to 21, July 31 to August 2 and October 2 to 4.

The GingerMan Raceway is located at 61414 Country Road 388, South Haven. To follow all of the scheduled events, visit the GingerMan Raceway's website at www.gingermanraceway.com

LAWTON - The Lawton Village Council adopted the Lawton Downtown Development Authority (DDA) Bylaws at the council's Tuesday, April 14, meeting. The resolution was recommended by the Lawton DDA and will bring the village one step closer to a village RRC designation.

In another area, the village council approved the 2026 Master Fee Schedule. Council members approved a renewal membership to the Michigan Municipal League at a cost of $47,551, a slight price increase over last year, according to Lawton Village Council President Josh Appleby.

A public hearing was set for May 12, for the Lawton Village Council to receive public comment on the Headlee Act.

Lawton Village Manager Todd Hackenberg gave the council an update on a search for a new village police chief. Interviews are currently being conducted on the police chief search.

Hackenberg said there is an open position on the Village of Lawton Public Works Department. The position has been posted on Indeed, MRWA, and the Village of Lawton website.

Hackenberg told the council that vandalism occurred at Oak Grove Cemetery, and an individual has been identified and charged.

Hackenberg is working with Van Buren County courts system to determine the amount owned and potential community service for the individual to be done at the cemetery.

Hackenberg said the Lawton American Legion is seeking help to clean headstones at Oak Grove Cemetery. Cleaning is scheduled for May 16-17, beginning at 9 a.m. Interested individuals should reach out to the Lawton American Legion for more information.

Doug Lawrence, representing the Lawton Youth Softball Baseball Board, told the village council that opening day is set for Saturday, April 25, with games officially kicking off on April 27. Lawrence said two travel teams are playing games on Tuesdays and Wednesdays and are utilizing Field 4 for practice as well. Two tournaments have been scheduled for this fall.

PP Village Council amends and reissues Special Land Use and new site plan approval for Warner Vineyards

On April 13, the Village of Paw Paw amended and reissued a Special Land Use authorization and a new Site Plan approval for changes planned at the Warner Vineyards outdoor entertainment venue. The actions were taken by the Planning Commission and Village Council, respectively.

Warner's proposed changes include an enlarged stage, additional decking along the river, a bridge over the river intended for patron use, and a row of specially designed and constructed shipping containers that will serve as outdoor food service, bar service and permanent restrooms. The containers will also serve as a base for several new rows of elevated seating. Warner purchased property from Honor Credit Union to make room for the new structures.

Patrick Warner told the village that his talent booking is limited by the smaller stage he has been using, and a larger stage more closely fitting the entertainment industry's standards will allow him to work with larger, better-known acts.

The village's Special Land Use ordinance for outdoor entertainment venues requires compliance with a comprehensive list of regulations intended to help prevent any potential negative effects outside the bounds of the property. These include emergency and security planning, insurance, liquor control, patron conduct, sanitation, trash and rubbish management and several others, according to Paw Paw Village Manager Bryan Myrkle.

Two areas the village Planning Commission paid close attention to are parking and noise. Because the Warner parking lot is used for general admission seating during the concerts, there is no on-site parking for the events. This would not be allowed typically, but Warner has secured nearby parking permissions from St. Julian Winery, Van Buren County and Tapper Ford. This was deemed to be adequate.

The issue of excessive noise and sound, however, remains unresolved, according to Myrkle. Warner will be allowed to start the concert season as planned; however, the village will continue to seek solutions and remedies for those residents who experience disruptive sound and noise. The village acknowledged that while the Warner concerts are a net benefit to the community, it should not come at the expense of those neighborhoods close to the venue.

District Library Board attorney presents opinion on Library Branch issues

The Courier-Leader received an e-mail from Van Buren District Library Board member Sandy Hanson, who received an opinion dated Feb. 19, 2026, on library branch issues from attorney, Anne Seurynck.

It reads as follows:

"The Van Buren District Library ("VBDL") requested our legal analysis of the continuing validity and legal effect of the 1997 and 1999 Branch Agreements, their interaction with the District Library Agreement, and the legal and operational consequences if a township declines to execute a proposed addendum or terminates a Branch Agreement. VBDL also asked for our explanation of how a participating municipality can withdraw from VBDL and the consequences that would follow. Our analysis follows."

Questions Presented and Short Answers

1. Are the 1997 and 1999 Branch Agreements still legal and binding? Yes, they remain legal and binding unless terminated according to their terms. While a few of the participating municipalities have cited the age of the agreements as the reason for questioning the validity, the age of the contract is not relevant in this case.
2. How do the Branch Agreements interact with the District Library Agreement? The Branch Agreements coexist with, but are subordinate to, the District Library Agreement and the District Library Establishment Act.
3. Do the Branch Agreements obligate VBDL to pay building and maintenance costs? No, the Branch Agreements do not obligate VBDL to pay building or maintenance costs, except for utilities and janitorial services.
4. If a township does not sign the proposed addendum to a Branch Agreement, what happens legally and operationally? Nothing. The existing Branch Agreement remains in effect if the addendum is not signed.
5. If a township terminates a Branch Agreement:
   a. What steps are required for termination? Without cause, 180 days' notice to the other party. For a breach of the agreement, 30 days' notice to cure the breach.
   b. Is a township-wide vote required? No.
   c. What happens to the existing branch library facility, equipment, collections, and staff? The equipment, collection, and staff remain with VBDL. The existing facility remains with the participating municipality, or whoever owns the property.
   d. Is Van Buren District Library statutorily obligated to operate a Branch Library within a particular municipality if that municipality's governing body terminates the Branch Library Agreement? No, VBDL does not have a statutory obligation to have a branch library in any location.
   e. If the branch agreement was terminated, would the township still be required to collect the library's millage and transfer that money to VBDL? Yes.
   f. If a township terminates the branch agreement, is that township still a participating municipality of VBDL? Yes, if a township terminates its branch agreement it remains a participating municipality of VBDL.
   g. Do VBDL appointed board members owe a fiduciary obligation to VBDL or the participating municipality that appointed the board member? The VBDL Board member has a fiduciary obligation to the VBDL not the participating member that made the appointment.
   h. Can a participating member replace or withdraw an appointed board member for any reason, or no reason at all, during that board member's appointed term? No, the participating municipalities do not have authority to remove district library board members.

Lawrence Township receives $472,000 through CDB Grant program

Lawrence Township has announced it has been awarded $472,000 through the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program, administered by the Michigan State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA).

The funding will be used to operate a Homeowner Rehabilitation Program designed to assist income-eligible residents with critical home repairs and improvements.

The township has selected Market One to serve as program administrator, bringing professional expertise to guide the initiative from application through project completion. Housing Administrator Matthew Sanborn played a primary role in developing and coordinating the program on behalf of Lawrence Township, ensuring the community is well-positioned to make the most of this significant investment.

"This grant represents a meaningful opportunity to improve the safety and livability of homes right here in Lawrence Township," said Sanborn. "We are grateful to MSHDA for this investment in our community and look forward to helping eligible homeowners access the assistance they need."

A public information meeting for Lawrence Township and Village of Lawrence residents to learn more about the Homeowner Rehabilitation Program, eligibility requirements, and the application process will be held Wednesday, May 6, at 5:30 p.m. at Lawrence Township Hall, 411 N. Paw Paw St., Lawrence.

Residents unable to attend but wish to learn more about the program are encouraged to contact Molly McFadden at: McfaddenM@Marketone.org.

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program is a federally funded initiative administered in Michigan by MSHDA. It provides communities with resources to address a wide range of community development needs, with a focus on benefiting low- and moderate-income persons.

Two honored with PRIDE awards by SH BOE

By James Windell

One of the most poignant moments at any South Haven School Board meeting is usually when the Pride Awards are given out.

This was certainly true at the Board of Education meeting on Wednesday, April 15, 2026, when two noteworthy individuals were handed Pride Awards by Superintendent of Schools Ana Aleman-Putman.

The first award went to Kate Hybels, who is a Success Coach at Lincoln Elementary School. Kate Hybels was recognized for her dedication, compassion, professionalism, and for helping students and staff feel supported and valued. She was noted for regularly checking in on classrooms and uplifting others – often with reminders like "Hey, you're worth it."

Hybels recently led a group of CAP (Challenge Acceptance Program) third graders in a student-led community problem-solving project using survey data and community interaction.

A student Pride Award was given to South Haven High student Kaylynn Norfolk. Kaylynn was recognized for perseverance and growth, emphasizing accountability, responsibility, and rebuilding trust after serious prior bullying-related circumstances that nearly led to expulsion.

Kaylynn was praised for collaborating with staff, counselors, and family and for following a plan to graduate on time with full credits. She was said to embody the school's tenets: integrity, collaboration, accountability, and respect.

It was also noted that Kaylynn participated in sports, peer-to-peer, and other community activities.

South Haven City Council holds budget workshop

By James Windell

South Haven's Finance Director Michelle Argue went over the proposed 2026-2027 budget at a City Council Budget Workshop on Monday, April 13, 2026.

A city budget is the formal financial plan that shows all the money a city expects to receive and all the money it plans to spend over the next fiscal year.

Argue was introduced by City Manager Kate Hosier who said that the finance director would "walk through" the General Fund, Special Revenue Funds and Enterprise Funds for 2026-2027.

Over the next nearly 90 minutes, Argue reviewed revenues and proposed expenditures for the next fiscal year. She began, however, by pointing out that there is $6, 653, 900.00 throughout the budget "for the different departments and funds." She then stated that over the next seven years, the city will need $63,968,157.00 to meet expected expenditures.

Argue went on to say that the 2026 ad valorem taxable value was $670,515,049.00, which represents a 6.38% increase. With a special tax value of $8,713,914.00, the total taxable value comes to $679,228,963.00.

She reviewed the budget for the General Fund, which accounts for resources traditionally associated with governments that are not required to be accounted for in another fund. In the City of South Haven, the functions of the General Fund include Legislative, General Administration, Parks, Police, Fire-Rescue, Ambulance, Development and Public Services activities not recorded in Special Revenue or Enterprise Funds. The General Fund is the designated repository per Michigan law for ad valorem property taxes. Other revenue sources for the General Fund are state-shared revenues and transfers from other funds.

Argue told the City Council that the General Fund showed overall use of a fund balance of $2,304,610 (expenditures over revenues). The starting fund balance was approximately $73,231,536. She said that General Fund revenues would be $11,795,569, with expenditures estimated to be $12,631,263. That means that the fund would use $855,694 from the fund balance.

She pointed out that property taxes account for 47.54% of the General Fund revenues. General fund expenditures go to various departments, but personnel costs account for 42.1% of total expenditures and contractual services make up the second largest segment of expenditures, amounting to 13.29% of the total.

Special revenue and enterprise fund highlights included a proposed Police Department budget of $3,595,533. Among equipment purchases for the police are new radio equipment which will cost $97,000. Funding for South Haven Area Emergency Services (SHAES) is proposed to be $1.2 million.

Other areas in the proposed 2026-2027 budget include money for highways and streets. The budgets for highways and streets is $928,403. Argue also discussed the budget for the library, senior services, airport authority, South Haven Recreation Authority and South Haven Schools.

A second budget workshop will take place on Monday, April 20, 2026 at 5:00 pm.

City Manager Hosier said that the second workshop will continue discussion of the Fiscal Year 2026/2027 Budget and that the City Council will be informed about other funds such as debt service, capital projects, internal service, fiduciary, and component unit funds.

Women Who Care donate funds to Casco beach project

By James Windell

Lakeshore Women Who Care, a group of community-minded women who meet quarterly to hear from and financially support non-profit organizations serving Allegan County, recently gave $12,900 to the Casco Township Beach Access Project.

The check was presented at the Casco Township Nature Preserve in Casco Township on April 8, 2026, to support the "Back to the Beach" project in Casco Township.

"Back to the Beach" is an effort by Casco Township to fund restoration of beach access at the Casco Township Nature Preserve. Stairs to the beach installed at the Nature Preserve in 2014 were destroyed by high water and erosion in 2020. Since then, the nearly 20-acre Preserve has lacked public access to the Lake Michigan shoreline. Public access to Lake Michigan is the community's and the Park and Recreation Committee's number one priority.

Julie Cowie, Casco Township resident and member of the Lakeshore Women Who Care, made the initial presentation to the group at its March 12, 2026 meeting. She was joined by Kelly Hecker, Recording Secretary of the Casco Township Parks and Recreation Committee, who answered questions about the project.

The funds collected from the Lakeshore Women who Care have been matched by the Allegan County Community Foundation (ACCF), as the March 12 presentation date fell during the ACCF's matching challenge, "Allegan County Gives." As a result, an additional $10,000 from the Allegan County Community Foundation was leveraged for the $980,000 project.

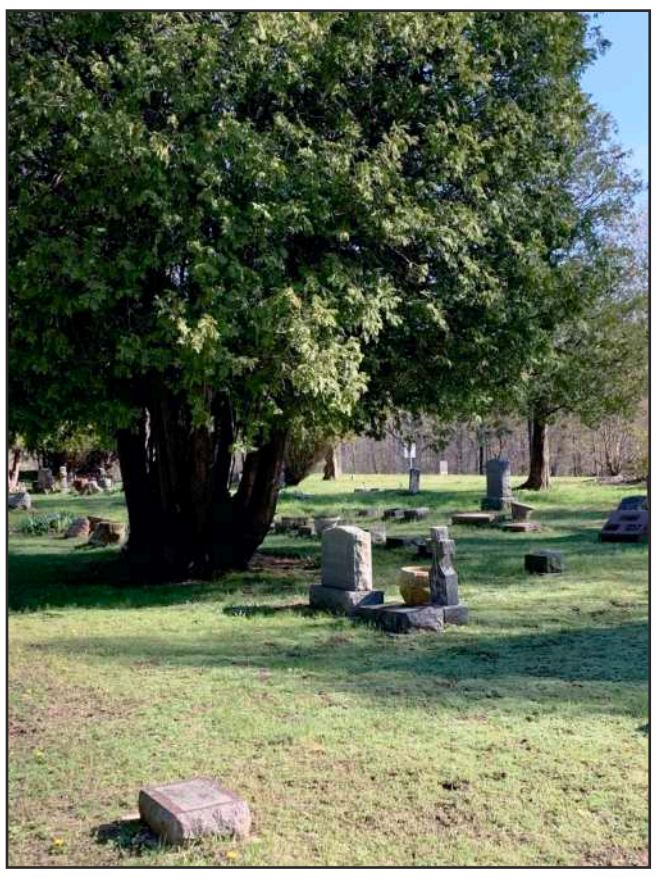
The "Back to the Beach" project is dependent on larger grant programs in the state of Michigan. Funding from a .25 millage collected for Parks and Recreation in Casco Township will also support the project. If grant funds are awarded, construction to restore public access at the Casco Township Nature Preserve is expected to start in late summer of 2027.

"We so appreciate your invest0ment in this project," said Julie Cowie in thanking the Lakeshore Women Who Care.

The Casco Township Nature Preserve is located at 770 Blue Star Highway, South Haven. It boasts a third of a mile of accessible paved trail, new restrooms, drinking fountains, picnic tables, benches, ample parking, and a spectacular view of Lake Michigan.

People wishing to financially support the "Back to the Beach" project at the Casco Township Nature Preserve can make a contribution through the fund at the Allegan County Community Foundation.

First Hebrew congregation donates tree maintenance gift to parks



By James Windell

There's been a noticeable decline in the health of evergreen trees in the Hebrew section of Lakeview Cemetery. But the First Hebrew Congregation of South Haven has offered a solution.

The First Hebrew Congregation approached the City's arborist last fall to begin a conversation about the condition and long-term care of evergreen trees in this particular section of the cemetery. As part of that effort, the Congregation sought professional guidance and obtained input and quotes from arborist service providers in order to develop a thoughtful maintenance plan to present to the City.

At the Parks Commission meeting on Tuesday, April 14, 2026, the First Hebrew Congregation offered to provide a gift of tree maintenance for this section of Lakeview Cemetery.

The gift, as outlined by Parks and Streets Superintendent Aaron Priebe, would entail four professional treatments. The contribution is intended to provide preventative care for several evergreen trees within that area, helping to protect their health and longevity. The proposed maintenance includes mite control, insect pest control, fertilization, and minor tree pruning, with a total of four scheduled service visits.

Proactive care of these trees is said to be important to preserve the character of the section and to help avoid more significant issues or costs in the future. The total value of the donated services is estimated at $3,700. Acceptance of this gift would allow the City to address maintenance needs in a timely manner without impacting the current budget, while continuing to demonstrate responsible stewardship of cemetery grounds and respect for this important area.

In contrast, the rest of the cemetery is mostly large hardwood shade trees which do not require a comparable maintenance program.

The Park Commission membership showed strong support for this donation, with one member referring to it as a "no-brainer."

A motion was made to recommend to the City Council that the donation be accepted. After a second to the motion, a vote was taken and the vote was unanimously in favor. The matter will now go before the City Council for final approval.

"These trees were planted decades ago by the Congregation and the City working together," says Dana Hullinger, a member of the First Hebrew Congregation, "and they were planted to help reduce the noise coming off of Blue Star Highway and to maintain a sense of privacy and peace.

"We want to preserve them as long as possible."

Bangor soccer girls prevail

By John Raffel

BANGOR — The Bangor Vikings girls earned their second conference soccer victory with a hard-fought 2–1 win over the Hartford Huskies last week.

Andrea Barajas and Magdaly Gonzalez each found the back of the net for the Vikings. Goalkeeper Solexey Calderon was solid in net, recording eight key saves to help secure the win. It was a true team effort, with strong determination and teamwork displayed throughout the match.

On Saturday, April 18, the Vikings faced a tough challenge against Sturges while dealing with multiple injuries, falling 8-0.

Despite the result, Solexey Calderon continued her strong play with nine saves, and Daniela Ramirez-Medrano contributed with three saves in goal.

Bangor is 3-3 after a 3-0 win at Comstock on Monday.

Bangor will play at Lawton on April 24 and is home on April 27 with Niles Brandywine and on April 29 with Bloomingdale.

Mattawan wrestler celebrates 34 wins

Zach Miller had 34 pins for the 2025-26 Mattawan wrestling season.

By John Raffel
Correspondent

Zack Miller recently finished a season for Mattawan High School where he achieved a rather unique milestone.

Miller was a senior for Mattawan who passed the 100-win mark in his final year.

Another major highlight for him, Miller said, was defeating wrestlers who had beaten him in the past.

Among the favorite wins was against a top 10 ranked wrestler.

Miller, at 150 pounds, sustained a concussion in his last tournament and was not able to continue for the rest of the season. He had hoped to advance to the state tournament for the first time so the early end of the season was disappointing.

Still, it was Miller's best season.

"I improved a lot," he said., "I changed my stance and I changed a couple of shots."

Millers strengths on the mat "was definitely takedowns and probably backspins. When we had our Mattawan wrestling banquet, I got the award for the most pins, 34 for the year."

Miller had 36 wins and 15 losses with 34 pins. The key to getting a pin, Miller said, was "putting the kid on his back by getting him off balance, get him moving, set up your shot and set up your finish."

Mattawan had a young team this season with a lot of first-year wrestlers.

Miller wrestled for 13 years.

"I'll miss all the friends I made," Miller noting wrestling was his main sport. "It's more competitive. It's you and only you on the mat."

Artemis II gives me hope that Mars colony is possible

MIKE'S MUSINGS

MIKE WILCOX
PUBLISHER

Artemis II isn't just another spaceflight, it's a statement about who we are, what we value, and whether we still have the will to push beyond the edge of the known.

When astronauts swung around the far side of the Moon—the so-called "dark side," more accurately the far side never visible from Earth they temporarily lose all communication with home. No live feeds. No reassuring voice from Mission Control. Just silence, distance, and the kind of isolation that defined the earliest era of exploration. It's a moment that will feel almost primitive in an age of constant connectivity and that's exactly why it matters.

More than 50 years ago, the Apollo 11 mission proved something extraordinary: that the United States could take on a seemingly impossible challenge and achieve it within a decade. When Neil Armstrong stepped onto the lunar surface in 1969, it wasn't just a technological triumph, but a cultural one. It united a divided nation, inspired a generation, and demonstrated that bold ambition could translate into reality. As a teen I beamed with pride knowing we had accomplished the unbelievable.

But here's the uncomfortable truth: we haven't been back. Personally I find that mighty strange. I know the Shuttle programs had different objectives, but to say we haven't went back to the moon in more than a half century is perplexing.

For decades, the Moon became a symbol not of progress, but of something we once did. Something filed away as history rather than a steppingstone. Artemis II changes that narrative. It's not about repeating Apollo. It's about restarting the journey.

Flying around the Moon's far side is a deliberate choice. It tests navigation, communication limits, and human endurance in deep space—conditions we must master before attempting longer missions, including sustained lunar presence and eventual trips to Mars. This isn't sightseeing; it's preparation.

And there's something deeper at play here. In 1969, we went to the Moon largely because of geopolitical competition. The Space Race drove urgency and funding. Today, the motivation is more complex: scientific discovery, international collaboration, economic opportunity, a renewed sense of purpose.

That shift matters. Artemis II represents a transition from a sprint to a strategy.

Critics will argue that the billions spent on space exploration could be used here on Earth. It's a fair question—but it misses the broader impact. The Apollo program accelerated advancements in computing, materials science, and telecommunications. Artemis is poised to do the same with new technologies in propulsion, sustainability, and robotics. Investing in space has always been, indirectly, an investment in ourselves.

There's also the matter of inspiration, something harder to quantify but impossible to ignore. A new generation has grown up without defining space achievement. Artemis II has the potential to change that, to once again make space exploration feel immediate and human, not distant and archival.

When that spacecraft slipped behind the Moon and radio contact faded, it echod a moment from Apollo missions when astronauts described the far side as both eerie and awe-inspiring. But this time, the silence will carry a different message: not "we've done this before," but "we're doing it again because we have somewhere further to go."

If Apollo 11 was proof of concept, Artemis II is proof of commitment.

And this time, the goal isn't just to visit the Moon.

It's to stay, to build, and to use it as the launchpad for the next giant leap. That next giant leap is Mars. I probably won't see it in my lifetime, but just envisioning a colony on Mars gives me much hope for humanity.

Sheriff's Report-Lawton man faces several charges

Van Buren Conty Sheriff's Office Uniform Response had a flee and elude in Decatur Township. A traffic stop was initiated over speeding and failing to signal. "The 18-year-old from Lawton fled at a high rate of speed and stopped after he was approaching another deputy set up with stop sticks. The investigation found that he was intoxicated during the incident. It was also found he took his parents' car without permission. He was lodged for operating under the influence of alcohol, flee and eluding, and UDAA (unlawful driving away automobile)," said Sheriff Abbott.

Van Buren County Sheriff's Office Uniform Response did its yearly Defensive Tactics Training/ Updates recently. "They go over different tactics, scenarios, hands-on moves and practice, new legal updates, etc," said Van Buren County Sheriff Daniel Abbott.

Uniform Response handled a lost individual in the woods by the Eagles Club, just north of Lawton. "The individual had an argument with another subject and left on foot into the woods. She became lost and called 911 for help. Our canine unit and sergeant with a drone responded to the scene and located the individual. She was checked out by EMS, then driven home," said Sheriff Abbott.

Uniform Response handled a larceny in Columbia Township. "Different items were stolen off a tree service vehicle that was unattended and parked. Anyone with any information is asked to call our office," said Sheriff Abbott.

April 12-18 was Animal Control Appreciation Week and National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week. "Thank you to all our staff in that capacity and the staff across the United States for all you do. I cannot say enough good things about our staff here at Van Buren County. Thank you to all the citizens who reached out to the staff as well," said Sheriff Abbott.

Uniform Response handled an assault incident in Almena Township. "The investigation found that a felonious assault took place, the victim was held against their will, an arson occurred to personal property, the suspect interfered with telecommunication, used a pneumatic gun during the incident, and resisted and obstructed. He was ultimately charged with all the offenses and lodged," said Sheriff Abbott.

"I assisted Bangor Police Department with a stolen vehicle reported out of Berrien County. The vehicle was in Bangor, which I happened to be only a few blocks away on patrol when the officer went to stop it. We conducted a felony stop and put the driver in custody. Berrien County came to the scene and took custody of the driver, and the vehicle was TOT (Turned Over To) to the victims/owners," said Sheriff Abbott.

Undersheriff Casey Davis attended the Spring Advisory Board Meeting at the Van Buren Intermediate School District (VBISD) for the Criminal Justice Program. At the meeting, several topics are covered such as classes, topics, ride-a-longs, etc.

Dr. Jill Newton returns to Bangor to speak about Tanzania

By James Windell

When the Bangor Historical Society holds its annual meeting on April 30, 2026, Jill Newton, who graduated from Bangor High School, will return as the featured speaker.

Now, Dr. Jill Newton, the former Bangor student, is a professor of Mathematics Education at Purdue University, and is known for her work in teacher education, curriculum research, and international study abroad programs.

After beginning her tenure at Purdue University in 2008, Newton founded Purdue's Tanzania Study Abroad Program. Each year she leads students on a month long immersive program where students teach in Tanzanian schools, study global education systems, and engage in cross cultural learning.

Students who accompany her to Tanzania take classes as part of their Global Studies minor and get to live at Fish Eagle Point during their stay. The curriculum is focused on teaching across cultures and learning about the education system worldwide, but most importantly, students are given the opportunity to interact and learn from a culture other than their own. Students leave with more knowledge about service learning and being a good global citizen. They are given the tools to serve in their own communities and have memories that will last them a lifetime.

After a brief meeting of the Bangor Historical Society, Newton will share her love of Tanzania and its history, culture and people. Newton spent 12 years teaching math and science not only in Tanzania, but also in Papua New Guinea, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and other countries before taking a position at Purdue University.

The Bangor Historical Society's Annual Meeting takes place on Thursday, April 30, 2026, at 7:00 pm sat the Odd Fellows Hall, above the Historical Society's Museum, 235 W. Monroe Street, Bangor. For more information, visit the Bangor Historical Society website at Bangormihistory.com

Scott Club Celebrates New Lift

By James Windell

Five years ago, Tom Hoatlin, who uses a wheelchair, could not attend a program on the second floor of the historic Scott Club. There was no way for him to access the main meeting room in the building that was constructed in 1892.

However, Hoatlin was back at the Scott Club on Friday, April 17, 2026, for a ribbon-cutting ceremony to celebrate completion of the new lift.

President Carol Anderson Kunze welcomed attendees telling them that the elevator/lift idea had been discussed for a long time, but after a 2018 building inspection, it was listed by the Board as a priority. However, she also said that Hoatlin's inability to get up to the second floor where programs are usually held was a significant impetus for finding a way to build the lift.

Kunze said that in late 2024, grant money funded a feasibility study by Keystone Designs and the recommendation that came out of that study was to install a vertical platform lift accommodating a wheelchair plus one other person, or up to three people. Construction on the lift began in January, 2026.

Kunze recognized several Scott Club members for project support including the building and grounds team members Anna Krajecki and Jay Campbell. She also thanked the grants team of Megan Iuusig, Sally Rehkopf, and Anna Krajecki for their work gathering funds for the project.

Krajecki, in making remarks prior to the ribbon cutting, thanked donors and community supporters and noted that fundraising ended up being the easiest part of the project. "Special thanks have to go to Carol and Don Hodgman as early supporters who helped build confidence and momentum," she commented.

For the ribbon cutting, Krajecki was given the honor of wielding the scissors to cut the red ribbon in recognition of her leadership and dedication to the project.

After the ribbon cutting, attendees were invited to enjoy refreshments and try out the lift.

Honored with the first official ride on the lift, Hoatlin emerged from his ride with a broad smile. It is noteworthy that he was present as he was assured that he will be able to ride up to the second floor in August, 2026 when he will be the featured speaker at a Scott Club program.

Kate Hinote Trio performs at South Haven Memorial Library

By James Windell

Detroit area-based singer and song writer Kate Hinote is on a tour of Michigan. She calls it her "Libraries as Listening Rooms" tour.

"Libraries are places where you can connect to people who actually want to listen to music," says Hinote about her tour of several Michigan cities. One of her stops will be at the South Haven Memorial Library on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, at 6:00 p.m.

Bringing her trio with her, Hinote, who has trouble placing her music in a specific genre, says that she will focus on their original music. "We put out our second album last year called 'Stowaways,' that has 10 new original songs, but in our concert we do have a few covers," she said. "We always do a few covers just to draw people in and hope they like our original music as well."

While her trio is often referred to as a contemporary folk ensemble rooted in storytelling, rich melodies, and an unmistakable chemistry between its members, Hinote in a recent interview said it's difficult to put their music into a genre. "It makes me crazy," Hinote noted with an infectious laugh, "because they've been forcing me to do that for so long. They make you pick a genre, but I always feel like it's never quite right."

Over the years that Hinote has been performing with her trio, made up of herself, guitarist David Johnson, and violinist Matthew Parmenter, as well as with the group called The Blueflowers, she and her band members called their music alternative folk. "However, when many people think of folk they think of very traditional artists, like Joni Mitchell or Joan Baez," Hinote remarked. "That doesn't reflect our music, so we just put contemporary in front of folk and go with that."

Hinote has been singing since she was three years. She says that her mother's favorite story is watching Kate standing on a chair in their backyard dressed in a pink frilly frock singing "Tomorrow" from "Annie." But it wasn't until she collaborated with her husband, Tony Hamera, beginning in 2004, that she discovered she could also write her own songs and that melodies came naturally to her.

That collaboration has resulted in several albums and a handful of EPs between the various Hinote/Hamera projects – which have won her an audience in Southeastern Michigan and around the state.

The Blueflowers, a Detroit-based band, grew out the songwriting collaboration between her and her guitarist/producer husband. She and Tony made an initial impression on the Detroit music scene in 2005 with the dream pop act, Ether Aura. When the two began experimenting with a more "Americana" sound, they decided to form a different band entirely, and in 2009 The Blueflowers were born.

The Kate Hinote Trio will perform at a free concert at the South Haven Memorial Library, 314 Broadway Street, on Wednesday, April 29, 2026, at 6:00 pm

Dems donate to non-profits across county

The Van Buren County Democratic Party has hit a one-year milestone in their DEMonstrating CommUNITY program, celebrating their success in aiding non-profit organizations throughout the county. Through monthly drives Democrats have donated to community food and resource pantries from Mattawan to South Haven, including Eleanor's Pantry in Paw Paw, Mattawan Area Pantry, Decatur Human Services, South Haven's We Care Community Resource Center, and Gobles Methodist/Kendall Area Ministries Food Pantry.

It began in March 2025 with a cry for toilet paper from Paw Paw's Eleanor's Pantry. The Van Buren Democrats' members and allies donated hundreds of rolls of toilet paper. The program has continued every month since. Each organization chooses one item and Democrats work to deliver as much of that item as they can gather. From cases of hearty soups in Mattawan, to dish soap in Gobles, to 4,000 loads of laundry detergent needed at the South Haven based We Care organization, the Democratic Party has donated hundreds of items and cash donations each month.

One example of CommUNITY financial support was collected in February, when Democrats participated in the South Haven We Care Community Resource Center's annual "Island Sit." The monthly drive brought in over $500 in donations to this worthy cause; and with a matching dollar for dollar offer, they raised over $1,000.

The Van Buren County Democratic Party's DEMonstrating commUNITY program has been a huge success and they will continue their monthly drives next month by collecting donations of pasta for the Mattawan Area Pantry. If you or your organization are interested in participating, please find information about each month's drive at vanburendems.org to see the current item being collected and the non-profit being served.

Diane and Lisa to present Gershwin Concert in South Haven

By James Windell

George and Ira Gershwin's music didn't just define the Jazz Age. It expanded what American music could be.

Writing some of the most enduring songs of the 20th century – songs like I Got Rhythm, Embraceable You, Someone to Watch Over Me, and The Man I Love – the Gershwin compositions merged classical forms with jazz harmonies, rhythms, and an improvisatory spirit.

On Sunday, April 26, 2026, Diane and Lisa will present their Tribute to Gershwin at the First Congregational Church in South Haven.

"One of our dear friends, Elaine Fluck, asked if we would present a concert of the songs of George and Ira Gershwin," says vocalist Diane Van Deurzen. "We agreed, but we have always loved their music."

In fact, when Diane and her partner Lisa Otey had a Harlequin Great Dane, they named it George Gershwin. "Since he was black and white like a piano," adds Diane. "Whenever we sing Someone to Watch Over Me, we dedicate it to him."

Pianist Lisa Otey notes that the duo has been singing the songs of George and Ira Gershwin throughout their 20 years of making music together. They have taken their act to jazz festivals, blues clubs and concert halls across Europe, the U.S., Mexico, and Canada. Since moving from Tucson, AZ to St. Joseph in 2021, they have enjoyed bringing their jazzy blues sound to vineyards, breweries and restaurants around Michigan and Indiana. This Gershwin program is part of their Spring Music Series at the First Congregational Church.

Lisa said that two Gershwin tunes – Summertime and Our Love is Here to Stay – appear on their latest CD, "You Got What I Want."

Pointing out that George and Ira Gershwin created a perfect bridge from classical music to jazz, Diane says that now 100 years later "Their music still touches everyone."

"Every time we sing They Can't Take That Away From Me or Embraceable You, a smile crosses everyone's face and they hold each other a little closer," comments Diane. "And when we sing I Got Rhythm, Nice Work if You Can Get It, or Lisa plays her boogie-woogie version of Rhapsody in Blue, you can feel the energy of this music move through the crowd."

To make the concert a little more special, Lisa and Diane said that Elaine Fluck is hoping everyone will dress in the style of the 1920's and '30s to get in character for this afternoon of swinging jazz and beautiful ballads. If you do dress up for the concert, you will save $1 on your ticket price.

Diane and Lisa's Tribute to Gershwin will take place at the First Congregational UCC, 651 Phoenix Street, South Haven, on Sunday, April 26 at 3:00 pm. Tickets are $20 at the door, free for children 12 and under. For more information, call Diane & Lisa at (269) 637-3804 (opt. 5).

Ramageddon competes in state robotics championship

By James Windell

There are 531 FIRST Robotics Competition teams in Michigan. In fact, Michigan has more teams than any other state. However, only 160 high school robotics teams qualified for the FIRST in Michigan State Championship, held at Saginaw Valley State University this past weekend.

Ramageddon, the South Haven robotics team, was one of those teams competing in the state tournament.

"That makes qualifying for the FIRST in Michigan Championship a significant achievement, and one our team is proud to have reached," said Kim Wise, one of the Ramageddon coaches, after the four-day competition that began on Thursday, April 16, 2026.

After arriving at Saginaw Valley State University in Saginaw, Ramageddon set up their pits and prepared for robot inspections and practice matches. By 4:00 pm on Thursday, qualification matches began. Following a full day of matches on Friday, alliance selections were held to determine which 24 teams would move on to the playoffs.

Ramageddon was not selected for a playoff alliance, but the experience was both valuable and motivating, explained Wise.

"This weekend gave our team the chance to compete alongside not only the top teams in Michigan, but some of the best in the world," Wise said. "Our robot and team performed their roles effectively, and while the level of competition was exceptionally high, we held our own and posted solid performance statistics." Ramageddon ultimately placed 35th out of 40 teams.

In addition to what they learned in competing, Wise said that the students came home home with more than just knowing where they ranked among the teams in the event.

"Beyond the matches," Wise said, "the team gained a great deal from the event, including exploring career and college fairs, learning from other teams, and gathering ideas to build on for next season."

Since the robotics season is over for Ramageddon, they will get a short, but well-earned break. "Then," said Wise, "it's time to jump back into offseason activities."

This includes hosting a free summer skills camp for middle and high school students, organizing and hosting an annual STEM-a-Thon, recruiting new team members, holding weekly practices for students interested in next season's drive team, and co-hosting the Coloma Sunset Splash FIRST Tech Challenge Qualifier for middle school robotics teams.

The amount due on the mortgage may be greater on the day of the sale. Placing the highest bid at the sale does not automatically entitle the purchaser to free and clear ownership of the property. A potential purchaser is encouraged to contact the county register of deeds office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge a fee for this information. THIS FIRM IS A DEBT COLLECTOR ATTEMPTING TO COLLECT A DEBT, ANY INFORMATION WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE. PLEASE CONTACT OUR OFFICE AT THE NUMBER BELOW IF YOU ARE IN ACTIVE MILITARY DUTY. Default has occurred in the conditions of a Mortgage (the "Mortgage") made by PATRICK GILLETTE, a single man, as Mortgagor(s), to Horizon Bank. The Mortgage is dated June 2, 2010 and was recorded June 11, 2010 at Liber 1536, Page 318 of Van Buren County Records. The amount claimed to be due on said Mortgage and unpaid at the date of this Notice is FIFTY-THREE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-EIGHT AND 45/100 ($53,158.45) DOLLARS, including interest on the applicable indebtedness at a variable rate which is currently 5.00% per annum. This sum will increase as additional interest, costs, expenses, and attorney fees accrue under the Mortgage and its related note and which are permitted under Michigan law after the date of this Notice. No legal or equitable proceedings have been instituted to recover the debt secured by the Mortgage, and the power of sale in the Mortgage has become operative by reason of the default. At the date and time as referenced previously in this Notice, the Mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the property herein described, or some part of them, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for the purpose of satisfying the amount due and unpaid on the Mortgage, along with interest due, the legal costs and charges of sale as allowed by statute and/or the Mortgage, and any taxes and insurance that the Mortgagee pays on or prior to the date of said sale. Attention Purchasers: the foreclosing Mortgagee reserves the right to cancel the sale prior to sale or to rescind this sale at any time. In that event, your damages, if any, will be limited solely to the return of the bid amount tendered at the sale, plus interest.
